

ISECN achievements

The ISECN Network was established at the IUHPE Vancouver Conference in June 2007. Since then members have been busy working on a range of initiatives including:

- Development of online communication tools (website and blogs).
- Establishment of two working groups - Health Promotion Ethics and Equity and Diversity.
- Participation by two members on the South West Pacific Regional Committee of IUHPE.
- Presentations at conferences, breakfast meetings, poster Presentations.
- Hosting global conference calls.
- Supporting active involvement of diverse health promoters from around the globe.
- Representation on the Global Scientific Committee for the 20th IUHPE World Conference on Health Promotion, 11-15 July 2010, Geneva, Switzerland.

ABOUT US

- ISECN is a network within the International Union for Health Promotion and Education (IUHPE). IUHPE is a leading non-governmental organization working to promote health and equity of health within and between nations.
- ISECN aims at connecting and enabling the student and early career membership category of the IUHPE. In this regard, age is not a criterion.
- We welcome practitioners and researchers alike.
- We hope to contribute to a further strengthening of the capacity of health promotion on the global health arena.
- ISECN has representation in all world regions. Regional contacts have been appointed.
- Further information on regional issues and activities can be found on the regional sections of our website www.isecn.org
